BUSINESS NOTICE.

THE PARTNERSHIP heretofore existing between the undersigned, in the Newspaper and Printing business, has been this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business of the Milwaukee Sentinel establishment, in all its branches, will be carried on by T. D. JERMAIN and HORACE H. BRIGHTMAN, under the name and style of JERMAIN and BRIGHTMAN. The editorial management of the paper will continue in charge of RUFUS KING. All debts due the late firm of KING, JERMAIN & Co., are to be paid to JERMAIN & BRIGHTMAN, by whom all accounts against the firm of KING, JERMAIN & Co. will be settled.

RUFUS KING,
T. D. JERMAIN,
H. H. BRIGHTMAN.

The News.

The Africa has arrived with later dates from Europe. She brings important news from India. LUCKNOW is relieved and its heroic garrison.—The revolted Sepoys fight desperately, but cannot resist British valor and discipline. Money matters are improving rapidly. Cotton is advancing. No change in breadstuffs.

We have further and interesting details from the Utah Expedition. The worst enemy they have yet encountered is the weather, which has killed off nearly all their horses and cattle.—They will probably spend the winter at Fort Bridger.

Kansas continues to exercise our Democratic brethren severely, and is like to prove an apple of discord among the rival leaders.

The New York produce market was without change, yesterday, but the money market showed very decided improvement.

Our Wisconsin Legislature convenes at Madison to-morrow. A brief, but busy session is anticipated.

Mr. WM. STRICKLAND, bookseller, of this city, has again been expelled from Mobile, for the offense (committed a year ago,) of selling one or two copies of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" in M. to customers who had ordered them.

NOT YET ORGANIZED.—The New York Legislature, which met last Tuesday, is not yet organized. The Senate chose its officers (all Republicans) the first day; but the Assembly has balloted three days without electing a Speaker. Parties in the Assembly stand: 61 Republicans, 57 Democrats, 10 Americans. On Friday the Assembly adjourned over till Monday, in hopes of "fixing things" in the interval.

MOBILE, Ala., Jan. 9.

A large meeting was held at the Amphitheatre to-day. A committee was appointed, who were authorized to expel Wm. Strickland, the abolitionist publisher, from the city. Resolutions were passed requesting him to leave the State, never to return.

Backing up Buchanan.

The Stevens Point Pinery does boldly, what the News attempts sneakingly—the justification of Mr. BUCHANAN's course towards Kansas, and the condemnation of Senator DOUGLAS' "bolt." We quote the concluding paragraphs of a long article in the Pinery on this topic:

Now comes in Judge Douglas, with his Black Republican allies, and says this Constitution must be rejected, and for why? Not because the Convention was not a legitimate body chosen according to law; not because the main question is not submitted to a vote, nor yet because the Constitution is bad, but because it does not express the will of the people. How is the will of the people to be got at, but at the polls; and if they refuse to appear, and express their will, who is in the fault?

To our humble conception this is an abandonment of the whole issue; admitting all that our adversaries have claimed from the beginning; giving up the Territorial Government with its laws and authority, and conceding the right of Jim Lane, to abrogate the Nebraska Bill, with all its sequences.

We cannot but believe that Congress will be consistent with itself—will sustain the President, admit Kansas with this Constitution, slavery or no slavery, and insist on and maintain the supremacy of the organic act, and the laws of Kansas had under it from first to last.

But our Democratic brethren with Judge Douglas proposed endorsing the President and Judge Douglas both! Our friends are certainly in error: they cannot row both ways at once, and the attempt only excites the laughter and contempt of the Shanghais.

The last paragraph is specially aimed at our neighbor of the News, who is diligently engaged in demonstrating that there is, after all, no material difference in this question, between DOUGLAS and BUCHANAN.

PROGRESS OF THE LA CROSSE R. R.—Last winter the contract for building the La Crosse Railroad from Portage City to La Crosse was let to S. Chamberlain & Co. Grading was commenced on the heavy work near this place in March, but for six weeks the weather was so bad that the progress was rather slow. From that time the work was pushed with great energy; and, tho' the hard times have doubtless effected its progress, yet for all that, there are but few railroads in the country where more miles have been graded and completed in the same length of time. The road was completed to this place, 17 miles, the middle of August, and to New Lisbon, 26 miles further, the middle of December. This makes 43 miles, all graded—and some of it very heavy grading—and the superstructure all completed, in about nine months, and near a month and a half of that time very bad weather. In addition to that, a considerable amount of work has been done in the same time between New Lisbon and La Crosse, and the work is still progressing west of Lisbon, with some prospect of completion this winter to Tomah, 18 miles from Lisbon. Where are the contractors in the United States who have pushed any work with such energy through the unparalled financial difficulties of the past season? We doubt whether they can be found. If any want to croak over the La Crosse Road with such energy before their eyes, let them croak. We'll risk Messrs. Chamberlain & Co., yet.—Wisconsin Mirror.

SAUK COUNTY JAIL.—The Baraboo Republic says this new edifice is now completed, and has been accepted by the Jail Commissioners of Sauk County. It is spoken of as being a fine and substantial building.

CITY MATTERS.

PRESENTATION.—In September last, on the occasion of the Target Excursion of the Chicago Light Guard to Highland Park, a detachment of the Milwaukee Light Guard, with their "Young America" cannon, preceded the C. L. G. to the place of meeting, and received them, on their arrival, with a salute of artillery. In return for this civility the Chicago Light Guard have presented to the Officers and Members of this detachment, a handsome silver shield, on black velvet, and with a neat gilt frame, bearing this inscription:

TO
Lieut. JOHN DAVIS, Lieut. ROBERT CHANDLER,
Commissary HARRY BINGHAM,
Colour Sergt. G. B. BINGHAM, Ord'ly Sergt. G. E. BINGHAM,
Sergeant H. L. PALMER,
Privates McJACKIN and JUDSON,
Fife-Major ROBINSON and Drum Major WEBSTER,
—OF THE—
Milwaukee Light Guard,
—BY THE—
Chicago Light Guard,
Commemorating the Target Excursion of the
C. L. G.
SEPTEMBER 25th, 1857.

Under this inscription is a neatly engraved representation of "Young America." This appropriate token of good-will is highly creditable to the Chicago Light Guard, and most acceptable to the Officers and Members of the M. L. G.

AGASSIZ' GREAT WORK ON NATURAL HISTORY.—In an appreciative review, published in the "Atlantic Monthly" for January, this book is pronounced the greatest work of the nineteenth century. It is allowed by everbody to be the grandest undertaking ever made in this country. The two volumes which are issued may now be seen at the Young Men's Association Rooms, where the whole work will be received as fast as it is published, and kept for the examination and reference of the members of the Association.

We understand that an effort is now being made to increase the number of members of the Association, and that so far the effort has been quite successful. It is of course not possible for the Committee to call on every individual, and undoubtedly many may be passed, who would like to join the Association. We are requested to give notice to all such, that they can become members by applying at the Rooms, next north of the Newhall House on Main street. The fee on admission is one dollar, and the yearly dues are only two dolars.

THE POWDER CASE.—The case of Mr. John J. Orton, in se whohouse, it will be remembered, a keg of powder was found while the building was burning a few days since, came up before the Police Court yesterday, and the defendant was fined $25 and costs.

The ordinance provides that no person shall keep, in any building within the city limits, except in a powder magazine, any greater quantity of gunpowder than ten pounds for any longer period than ten hours, nor any less quantity, unless it be kept securely in a tin canister, under penalty of $25.

In this case the powder was in a keg, and the amount was 18 1-2 pounds—enough to have blown the house to atoms. It was almost a miracle that this carelessness did not cause a great loss of life, for the house was full of firemen and others when the keg was taken out smoking; and we are pleased that the one who was guilty of it has been punished to the extent of the law.

CONSIDERABLY "SOLD."—Our neighbor of the Wisconsin was most egregiously "sold," on Saturday evening, probably by a "precocious little girl, only 10 years old," or otherwise. He published, as original, a "poem" not over fastidious in its "wanderings," praised the poem, and the poet, and hoped his valuable contributor would not forget him, and his family paper. The poem created some little excitement among a certain class, but it turns out to be a production of some contributor to the New Orleans Picayune, and to have been written some three years ago. Our neighbor must look closer after his contributors.

P. S.—There was a rumor in town that the poem had been received by telegraph "exclusively for," etc., etc., and the fact that it was so long in getting from New Orleans to Milwaukee, would in no slight degree warrant the belief. We look for an explanation.

ATTEMPT TO STAB AN OFFICER.—On Sunday evening policeman McCarty narrowly escaped being stabbed while arresting a man named Wm. Dellehanty in the 3d Ward. Dellehanty was somewhat intoxicated at the time, and was endeavoring to raise a row in the street. Policeman McCarty tried to arrest him when he rushed into a house followed by the officer, whom he attempted to stab, but fortunately for McCarty he warded off the knife with his club and seized hold of Dellehanty, and with the assistance of policemen Shaughnessey and Collins conducted him to the station house. He was examined yesterday morning before Justice Walworth and sentenced to 3 months imprisonment in default of $50 fine. Dellehanty is a notorious character. It is scarcely a year since he was indicted for an attempt to stab another policeman.

IMPORTING PORK.—We regret to learn, says the Neenah Conservator, that the old practice of last year, of importing pork from Chicago and Milwaukee, for home consumption, is rendered necessary again from a short supply. Hesse, one of our butchers, purchased several tons of Layton & Plankington at Milwaukee, last week, and had it brought to Fond du Lac by railroad and thence by team. The cost here was about $7,00 per cwt.

From the same paper we learn that Alvin Foster Esq., has been elected to fill a vacancy in the Board of Aldermen, of the City of Appleton. Mr. F. was one of the early settlers at Milwaukee, and has but recently located at Appleton. He is an intelligent and worthy man and will do honor to any position to which our young sister may elevate him.

THE BALL AT SMITH'S HOTEL.—Those who attended the last Ball given by our friend SMITH at his hotel on Main street, will be glad to learn that another takes place this evening. The Ball will no doubt be all that could be desired, while a bountiful supper, such as SMITH knows how to get up, will be provided. Mr. SMITH would be glad to welcome his legions of friends at his hotel this evening.

SEVENTH WARD SCHOOL.—This new school will be opened for the reception of pupils, in all Departments, at 9 o'clock to-morrow (Wednesday) morning. In the High School Department, pupils from all the Wards, who have been found properly qualified, are admitted. In the Primary and Intermediate Departments, all children, whose parents reside within the Seventh Ward, are entitled to admission.

☞ To-night, Mr. Lyne, a citizen of Milwaukee, and an actor favorably known both at home and abroad, will give us an entertainment consisting of scenes from Macbeth, Hamlet, Henry IV., and a spirited eulogium on the immortal Washington, at Treat's Hall. Admission is cheap. Give Mr. Lyne a good house.

ANOTHER CONCERT FOR THE POOR.—The New England Bards give a concert at the Albany to-night, in aid of the funds of the Milwaukee Union Relief Association. The "Bards" are practised vocalists and offer a good programme. The price of admission is but 25 cents. Let the Hall be well filled.

POLICE COURT, JANUARY 11.—A man named William Dullehanty, who has figured conspicuously in police matters, was brought up for attempting to stab an officer while arresting him for disorderly conduct, and was sentenced to three months imprisonment in default of $50,00 fine.

Larceny.—Bridget Smith was examined on a charge of stealing a shawl, and committed for trial before the Circuit Court. This unfortunate woman has been frequently imprisoned for drunkenness. She has a child, a bright little girl, two years of age, who, we are pleased to learn, has been taken by a benevolent lady with the mother's consent, who will care for her kindly, and thus save her from the vicious habits of her mother.

Daidrick Schober, charged with larceny, was discharged, his offence being of the nature of trespass more than larceny.

John J. Gleaney was convicted of stealing two pieces of timber of the value of $10, the property of Schultz & Co., and sentenced to 30 days imprisonment in the county jail.

John J. Orton, for violating an ordinance in relation to the storage of gunpowder, was fined $25 and costs.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The case of Chamberlain vs the M. & M. R. R. Co., occupied the court all day yesterday and is still proceeding. The following indictments have been made by the Grand Jury in addition to those which we have already published:

Jonathan Taylor,—Alderman from the Fourth Ward—gross fraud in official station.
Franz John, for rape.
Charles Pendergrass, for pocket picking.
James Phelan, for larceny.
Ellen McGrath, "
John Felix, embezzlement.
Patrick O'Rourke, adultery.
Horatio Maine, for Arson.
Wm. Knautt and Carl Bunker, for larceny.
George Smith, do.
Emanuel Silverman, do.
Gunther Rupert and Ernest Bock, for receiving stolen goods.

None of these parties have yet been arraigned. The Grand Jury was discharged on Saturday afternoon.

LECTURE THIS EVENING.—Dr. De Lara, late of Russia, will lecture this evening at Young's Hall. Subject—"Russian Serfdom and American Slavery contrasted and compared." New York and Boston papers speak of this lecture in the highest terms. The Dr.'s long residence at St. Petersburg, and other parts of Russia, enables him by actual observation, to do justice to his subject. One of the Boston journals speaks of him as a man of fine address, easy, and familiar with his subject, and as a popular lecturer, one of the best they ever had in that city.

NEW BOOKS.—Kempshall, successor to Archibald Wilson, 175 East Water street, is in receipt of a number of new books, and among them a Satire, entitled "Husband vs. Wife, or Nobody to blame," neatly printed and tastefully illustrated. All the latest publications may be found at Kempshall's.

AN ALDERMAN INDICTED.—It will be seen by the Court record in this morning's paper that the Grand Jury, among other indictments, have found one against JONATHAN TAYLOR, one of the Aldermen from the Fourth Ward in this city, for "gross fraud in official station." Mr. TAYLOR is not now in Milwaukee, having left here, for the South, several weeks since.

LA CROSSE & MILWAUKEE R. R.—Mr. L. L. DOTY, the newly appointed Treasurer of the La Crosse & Milwaukee R. R. Company, arrived in our city last week, and has entered upon the duties of his responsible office. Mr. DOTY, for six years past, has been Deputy, or Assistant Treasurer of the State of New York, and brings with him very high testimonials as to character and capacity.

ARRIVED SAFE.—The Africa, which sailed from New York on the 9th of December arrived at Liverpool on Sunday, the 21st. Among her passengers, it will be remembered, were our fellow citizens, Alexander Mitchell, James Christie and Roland Olmstead.

HEAVY RAIN.—The rain fell heavily, all day Sunday, the wind blowing from the South-East. Our pavements and sidewalks are cleaner, and our cisterns the fuller, for this copious out-pouring from the skies; but mud abounds in the roads and unpaved streets.

MILWAUKEE LIGHT GUARD—BUSINESS MEETING.—A special meeting of the Milwaukee Light Guard, for business purposes, is to be held at their Armory this (Tuesday) evening, at eight o'clock. A full and punctual attendance of the Members is particularly requested.

COUNTY PHYSICIANS.—The Board of Supervisors have appointed Drs. Nauman and Tyrrell, of this city, and Dr. Day, of Wauwatosa, County Physicians for this county at salaries of $800 each.

DANCING PARTY.—Professor Marinni gives a private Dancing Party at his Academy, on Market Square, this evening. Hess furnishes the music.

Hamilton City Town and Land Company.

A. B. PAUL, one of the proprietors, is now in this city for the purpose of securing machinery for mills, &c. All persons contemplating moving West early in the coming season, are cordially invited to call and examine our plans, maps, &c., at the American House. A good opportunity is also offered to mechanics and tradesmen of all kinds, to secure—"even with limited means"—good homes in one of the richest valleys of the Northwest.

See pamphlet containing sketch, &c., of country adjacent, and plan of the proprietors in building up an important point on the Sioux River, Iowa. We want actual settlers. Call and see us and talk the matter over. dec230dtf

Thompson's Gift Sale.

OPEN DAY AND EVENING, at No. 8 Market Square. If your hair is turning grey, one bottle of his Golden Lustral will restore it. For removing tan and freckles, or softening the skin, there is no known preparation like the Lily Dew; and for Rheumatic Complaints, Neuralgia, &c., the Chloroform Liniment is invaluable. In addition to guaranteeing satisfaction in all cases, when they are used, each purchaser is presented with a Gift varying in value from six cents to fifty dollars, at the time of purchase. Give him a call by all means, and see if it is humbug. jan9l865d6t

PROFESSOR DE GRATH would state explicitly that he is the discoverer and sole possessor of the secret of the manufacture of Electric Oil, which could not be purchased for $1,000,000—and $50,000 will be given to any chemist who will make it. My Oil has performed all the cures published in the Ledger for years past. Ask Col. Grant, 26 North Thirteenth st., Dr. Killingsworth, Dr. Keyser, now at St. Lawrence Hotel; Geo. C. Boyer 802 North Third street; Mrs. Cannon, Coates street; Paul Jones, Jarvis street; Mr. Cripps, Thirteenth and Girard avenue, and others ad infinitum, who have been cured of Rheumatism by my Oil; and I will not be responsible for the evil consequences of the base imitations. Beware, and be safe. Sole Depot for the pure and delightful Electric Oil, No. 89 South Eighth street, near Chestnut. Price 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.

PROF. CHAS. DE GRATH,

Not removed.

☞ For sale by Bosworth & Sons, and J. H. Tesch, Milwaukee; Fahnestock & Davis, and Reed & Co., Chicago; and by Druggists and Merchants generally throughout the country. jan11d&w1w

Receipts of produce moderate, and market without animation. Warehouses take nothing but good dry lots of wheat. There is a fair demand for choice samples of club and white winter, for milling. Other grains dull, and but few sales. Pork in light supply, but sufficient for the demand. We quote:

WHEAT—56@57 for Spring, 58@60 for good club to mill. 65a80 for the range of winter.
RYE—Nominal at 50, no sale.
BARLEY—Dull at 25@30.
OATS—Quiet at 25.
CORN—35c.
POTATOES—Hardly any sale 25@31.
BUTTER—14@16c for firkin, 16@18c for choice roll.
EGGS—16c ℔ dozen.
HIDES—5a6c for green, 6@8c for dry.
HOGS—$4,75@5,25 for good to choice clean.
FLOUR—$3,00a3,25 for superfine, $3,75@4 for extra, country brands.

Money market exceedingly stringent, and no present prospect of improvement. Everybody complains of the hard times.

SALE OF R. R. STOCKS.—E. Butterfield & Co., auctioneers, sold at auction, yesterday, 40 shares of Milwaukee and Horicon R. R. Stock, at $6 per share.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, Jan. 11.

LATEST NEWS!

BY MAGNETIC TELEGRAPH

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER AFRICA.

Late and Important from India.

MONEY MARKET MUCH EASIER.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11.

The steamship Africa which left Liverpool on the P. M. of the 26th, arrived at this port yesterday morning with three days later advices from Europe, and highly important news from India.—Owing to the celebration of the Christmas festivals, no business had been done for a day or two preceding the departure of the steamer, and our commercial intelligence therefor is very brief.

The London Money Market was much easier, and the Bank of England had reduced its rates of interest from 10 to 9 per cent.

Consols closed on the 24th, at 93⅝a93¾, a slight advance on previous quotations.

American securities had varied very little, either in specie or demand.

The failures of McHaigh, woolen trader, of Bradford; Haus, Marsbar & Co., Dutch merchants of Hull; and Stephenson, Vercheron & Cobb, of New Castle, are reported.

The financial pressure was much lighter in Hamburgh, and had abated in Austria, Sweden and Norway, while Warsaw was still suffering from its influence.

The improved condition in monetary affairs had exerted a favorable influence on the cotton market, which was buoyant, on the 24th, at an advance of ⅛a⅛d on some descriptions, 8,000 bales changed hands during the day.

There was but little movement in flour and provisions.

Sugar had advanced.

The British Board of Trade returns for the period of eleven months of the year ending Nov. 30th, show a falling off in the value of the exports of domestic produce and manufactures, to the extent of ten million of dollars.

Buchanan's message on the war in Utah, and the Kansas question, engaged a large share of the attention of the English and French press.

The news from India, is dated at Bombay, on the 5th of December. The English garrison at Lucknow, was relieved by the troops under command Sir Colin Campbell, on the 19th of Nov. and their sick and wounded, and women and children sent in safety to Cawnpore.

The British Commander-in-Chief reached the Oumbogh on the 12th of November, and engaged the Sepoy's army next morning.

The rebel force fought the English with energy, and determination. The conflict, or series of fights, continued for six days, when the mutineers were routed, and Gen. Havelock and his command saved.

During these engagements Sir Colin Campbell was wounded slightly and had 4 officers killed and 40 others wounded. It is said the Sir Colin Campbell had 22,000 men under his command, with which force he would march to the conquest of Oude. The English reinforcements were pouring in daily.

FRIGHTFUL EARTHQUAKE.

IMMENSE DESTRUCTION OF LIFE AND PROPERTY.

PARIS, Dec. 22, '57.

On Thursday night last, the 17th, a terrific earthquake devastated the districts of Salerno, Potenza, Nola, and other places.

Entire villages have been destroyed, and the victims are several thousands in number.

In the city of Naples there were several violent shocks, and the whole population was encamped outside the city during the whole day, but no fatal accident occurred in the city.

MARSEILLES, Tuesday, Dec. 22.

We have advices from Naples of the 19th. An awful earthquake took place on the night of the 17th. Its destructive effects have been experienced throughout the whole kingdom; most severely in the towns of Salerno, Potenzo and Polo. At Salerno the walls of the houses are rent from top to bottom. Numerous villages are half destroyed.

In the province of Basilicata and in the Continental principality mainland, the dead are reckoned at several thousands. The authorities have erected huts for the houseless families.

The city of Naples experienced three violent shocks.

The population are encamped in the open country.

The northern part of the kingdom of Naples has not been subjected to this visitation.

Movements of General Walker.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.

The New York Herald's Washington correspondent says: Gen. Walker leaves here for the South. He goes first to Mobile and thence to New Orleans. A large force has already concentrated at the above places, and will leave as early as possible to join Col. Anderson.

Quite a number of fillibusters, discharged at Norfolk, have been here, and have received their orders to go South.

The General has left his matters with his friends in Congress, who will press his claims with great vigor.

Col. Williams, of Tennessee, who was appointed Minister to Constantinople, has refused to accept the position, and has withdrawn his application.

Mr. Poindexter, of Tennessee, who was recently appointed Chief Clerk in the Post Office Department, will, I understand, get the position.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.

Private despatches from Indiana say that the democratic Convention of the State after endorsing the Cincinnati Platform, passed the following resolution:

Resolved, That we are still in favor of the great doctrine of the Kansas Nebraska act, and that by a practical application of that doctrine, the people of a State or Territory are vested with the right of ratifying or rejecting at the ballot box, any constitution that may be formed for their government, and therefore no Territory should be admitted into the Union as a State, without a fair expression of the will of the people being first had, upon the constitution, and accompanying the application for admission.—This resolution was passed by 378 yeas to 115 nays, and was subsequently made unanimous.

Despatches from Columbus, Ohio, say that the democratic caucus of the members of the Ohio Legislature, have unanimously agreed to instruct their delegation in Congress to vote and act in opposition to the Lecompton Constitution.

HIGHLAND, Jan. 11.

The Sea View house at the Highland, where the murder of Moses by Donnelly was committed, together with the cottage occupied by Mrs. Jarvis, was totally destroyed by fire, about 9 o'clock last night. The house has not been occupied since September, and the fire was doubtless the work of an incendiary. Loss about $15,000.—Insured about half that.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.

Rev. Dr. Knox, of the Collegiate Reform Dutch Church, died last night from the effect of a fall some days since. He had been for over forty years a minister of the Gospel.

New York, Dec. 9.

The steamship Arago sailed at noon for Southampton and Havre, with 64 passengers and $465,000 in specie.

The U. S. Senate on Fillibusterism.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.

SENATE.—The President to-day sent in his message to the Senate in response to the call for information on the Central America question.—While, he says, Commodore Paulding committed a great error in arresting Gen. Walker, he thinks it is quite evident that Paulding was actuated by patriotic motives and desired to promote the interests and vindicate the honor of his country.—Nicaragua sustained no injury by the act, but was rather benefitted. She alone would have the right to complain, but the President was quite certain that she would never exercise that right.

A warm and long debate followed, in which Messrs. Seward, Doolittle, and Pearce sustained the President's views. Messrs. Davis, Crittenden, Brown, Pugh, Toombs and Douglas the opposite side.

Mr. Toombs, Dem., of Ga., thought the Message contained grave and important errors, and entered his dissent from them. The President dared not defend, while he endeavored to palliate, this outrage to an American Senate. As to the letter of Paulding, the coarse brutality of that correspondence must be admitted by every human being. It not only unfitted him to be the commander of a ship, but even to be the cabin-boy.

Mr. Davis, Dem., of Miss., said it was the sacred privileges of an American citizen to bear arms, and whenever he choose to leave his own country and risk his life and fortune in fighting elsewhere, he had a right to do so.

Mr. Pugh was of opinion that the principles laid down in the Message were neither warranted by the Constitution nor by any statute law of the United States, nor by any principle of the law of nations. The question was not whether Walker was committing a crime against Nicaragua? Let her punish him if she is able.

Mr. Brown, Dem., of Miss., said he had a right to take his musket upon his shoulder, and go and tell the President, Secretary of War and District Attorneys everywhere that he meant to wage war against Nicaragua or any other nation, and they would have no right to molest him. If one man has the right, two men or five hundred have it.

Mr. Douglas (Dem. of Ill.,) returned the compliment of Mr. Brown, who had said he admired his [Douglas] pluck for expressing his opinions. He [Douglas] found he was getting into good company, and beating up recruits faster than Walker. He [Douglas] thought it would be found after a while that they were all in the party, and were not to be accused of faction because they happen to differ from the President in some of their views. Some strange things happen now-a-days. Even the Senator from New York was supporting the Administration, and in defending it, attacks Democrats.

Mr. Seward said the President had announced that Walker had not only violated the laws of the land, but the higher law, and he [Seward] would be recreant to his duty, as an advocate of the higher law, if he did not support the President.—[Laughter.]

The message was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

FROM THE UTAH EXPEDITION.

COL. COOKE AT FORT BRIDGER—NO BATTLE—THE HORSES OF THE EXPEDITION NEARLY ALL LOST.

The Republican has received the following correspondence, which serves to correct the story published a day or two since from a St. Joseph paper, to the effect that a battle had taken place between the Mormons and the U. S. troops, in which the latter were cut to pieces:

FORT KEARNY, U. T., Dec. 23, 1857.

Having for some time past been a reader of your paper, I observe that you devote a portion of your columns to news from the "Far West," and as the public are particularly interested in knowing the condition of our troops en route for Utah, I take the liberty of giving you the latest news I am in possession of in regard to them.

On the 26th of November, Col. Johnston was at Fort Bridger, at which place he had established his head quarters. Col. Cooke, with six companies second dragoons, arrived that morning, having lost many of his animals, and the remainder were unfit for service. From Laramie to Salt Lake there is no grass, (the Mormons having burnt it in advance of the troops,) consequently all the animals belonging to the expedition were very poor when winter set in, and it is reported that they are dying at the rate of some one hundred daily.

There can be no doubt that when spring opens Col. Johnston will be so crippled that he will be compelled to await the arrival of fresh animals, and other supplies, before he will be able to commence active operations. That the expedition is a failure for this year, cannot be questioned; and when we reflect upon the matter and see what an immense amount of public money must be lost, as well as the condition of the troops, on short rations, and living in tents in a country where the snow is usually very deep during the entire winter, (in November it was two feet deep,) it would seem that your predictions last summer were well grounded. That the Mormons intend to resist, there can be no doubt; they are fortifying the passes that lead to the city. They have released Jesse Jones, agent of Majors & Russell, who was taken prisoner by them some time since, and have sent him to Col. Johnston's camp. In passing through the different canons they blindfolded him, to prevent him from obtaining any knowledge of their movements. It is reported that Bill Hickman, who is one of the Danites, and a notorious scoundrel, has been killed by a mountain man named Baker. I am inclined to think it is his brother, who was a prisoner in Col. Alexanders' camp, as report says, he was released a short time before.

Mr. Magraw, of the wagon road expedition, has volunteered under Colonel Johnston—those of his party who would not do so were discharged. So this expedition is broken up without accomplishing anything, save what has been done by Lander, chief engineer, and his assistants. Mr. Magraw having had some difficulty with his engineers, they, as well as the disbursing agent, left him, and have gone to the states.

A few nights since a party of Cheyenne Indians attacked some Pawnees, who were occupying an old mail house within a few hundred yards of the post, which occasioned some little excitement in the garrison. The command promptly turned out, and a detachment was sent to patrol, but the night was so dark that no Indians could be discovered. Some doubt was felt, at first, as to the fact that the Cheyennes having made this attack but next morning moccasin tracks, (without doubt Cheyenne), were discovered, which settled the matter. The bold attack upon the part of the Cheyennes was from the following circumstances, viz: Three Pawnees had stolen some horses from the Cheyennes, were pursued, and the animals recovered. In the encounter the Cheyennes had one man killed (supposed to be a chief,) and another severely, if not mortally wounded. The Pawnees escaped without loss, and came immediately to the fort, where they had been some days before this attack was made on them; which fact was, no doubt, known to the Cheyennes, and their object was to surprise them, and get a scalp or two in revenge for the loss of their comrades. An attack upon the post was evidently not designed by them.

We are enjoying delightful weather at present, and as the contrast is so great to the weather experienced last winter, we do not fail to appreciate it, and devoutly wish for its continuance during the whole winter.—St. Louis Democrat, Jan. 6.

MILWAUKEE:
TUESDAY MORNING, JAN'Y 12.

Meeting of the Legislature.

Our Legislature convenes at Madison to-morrow. As the Republicans have a majority in each House, 6 in the Senate and 5 in the Assembly, we presume that an organization will be promptly effected, and that the Governor's Message will be sent in by Thursday, at farthest; in which event it will be laid before our readers in the Sentinel of Friday morning. The Message is looked for with considerable interest, and the action of the Legislature will be closely scrutinized. It is hoped and expected that the Session will not last beyond the 1st of March.

A variety of important subjects will engage the attention of the Legislature; but a session of six, or seven weeks will afford ample time for the disposal of all these, if the great and growing evil of "special legislation" be only avoided. In previous years, much of the valuable time of the Legislature has been engrossed by private and local bills which ought never to have been entertained. This year, we hope that the door against all this class of special laws will be resolutely closed from the first. The local boards of supervisors have power to act in the premises, and are better posted, as to the justice or necessity of the relief asked, or the privileges sought, than the Legislature can possibly be.

The pregnant questions of Assessment and Taxation will come up among the earliest subjects for Legislative action. Repeated attempts have been made, to hit upon some fair and uniform rule of assessment, all over the state, whereby the burdens of taxation might be equally distributed. But these attempts have thus far proved failures. Nevertheless, the necessity of some such rule is obvious and imperative, and the Legislature must "keep trying" till the difficult problem is solved. As to the Taxes, a cry for Relief is going up from all parts of the State; people finding it impossible to pay within the time prescribed by law, and an extension of that time, for two, three, or four months, being generally and earnestly desired. We presume that the Legislature will hearken to the people's prayer and grant the extension asked for.

Our Banking Law needs looking to; or rather certain practices under that law, which are questionable, to say the least. We refer to the organization of Banks in out of the way places, whose whole business is confined to the issue of notes. To be sure, the Comptroller holds securities for the ultimate redemption of these notes, but they are not practically convertible into gold and silver; for the reason that the alleged business place and local habitation of these Banks, is at some remote and almost inaccessible point, obviously selected to escape demands for coin.—The effect is to drive out of circulation the notes of our really sound and good banks, and to replace them with the issues of these mere "rag-manufactories." This is an evil that the Legislature should, if possible, abate, before it brings into discredit the whole Banking system and Bank currency of our State.

The duty enjoined by the Constitution upon the Legislature, to restrict the power of corporations, in taxing, assessments, borrowing money, contracting debts and loaning their credit, is one that can no longer be neglected. Almost every city, town and village in our State is suffering from these "abuses," in assessment, taxation, and the contracting of debts, which it was the object of this provision to prevent. It is unnecessary to say that the Legislature itself is called upon, in these times, to set the example of Retrenchment and Economy. All superfluous offices should be abolished; all excessive salaries reduced; all unnecessary expenditures stopped. We would refuse no man, in the service of the Legislature, or the State, "a fair day's wages for a fair day's work;" but, beyond this, let the Legislature be careful of the People's money.

We trust that, at a very early period of the session, the Legislature, speaking for the People of Wisconsin, will enter its protest against the Lecompton Swindle; and call upon our Senators and Representatives in Congress, to resist to the uttermost the admission of Kansas into the Union under this Slave Constitution. Upon this issue we cannot doubt that the great majority of the Legislature, Democrats as well as Republicans, think and will speak alike. There is but a corporal's guard—and those mainly wearing Federal livery—among the Freemen of Wisconsin, who are ready to sustain BUCHANAN and the Lecompton fraud. The great mass of our People are for RIGHT, JUSTICE and FREEDOM to Kansas!

THE MONEY IN THE TREASURY.—Our newly installed State Treasurer, Mr. Hastings, in reply to a query from the editor of the Patriot, thus describes the money which makes up the sum of $124,224,28, transferred to him by his predecessor:

> Of this amount, $5,81 was in postage stamps; $2,457,86 in gold and silver coin; and the balance, $121,760,55, in notes of the various banks of this State, and among these notes was a package containing $12,000 of the Wisconsin Valley Bank. These last mentioned notes had evidently, from their appearance, never been in circulation. Twenty-five thousand dollars of the bonds deposited as security for those notes, were issued by the State of Missouri, to the Pacific Railroad Company, on the 18th day of December, 1857.—They were registered by the Auditor of that State on the same day. On the 28th day of the same month, they were assigned, at St Louis, by the President of the Pacific Railroad Company; and on the 31st, were registered in the Bank Comptroller's office of this State, as security for the issues of the Wisconsin Valley Bank.
> On the afternoon of Wednesday, the 6th inst., I received for record in this office a descriptive list of the notes delivered by the Bank Comptroller to said Wisconsin Valley Bank.

This looks like very "sharp practice," and we should like to hear the explanation of it.

A SUPERFLUOUS OFFICE.—The Madison State Journal, referring to a recent appointment of Assistant Attorney General, says:

> Two years ago the people elected an Attorney General who was—physically at least—incompetent to discharge the duties of the office. The matter was laid before the last Legislature, and that body was urged to authorize the appointment of an Assistant. The act in question was passed. Mr. Bouck, the new Attorney General, does not labor under the difficulties which embarrassed his predecessor. He is a young man, in vigorous health, and possessing good abilities. The necessity which led to the passage of the act authorizing an Assistant Attorney General having ceased to exist, the Legislature would do well to repeal it at once. The manifest propriety of such a course will be apparent to all.

MARRIAGE EXTRAORDINARY.—On Tuesday evening Justice Peopping, of Carondelet, had the rare felicity of joining in bands matrimonial and binding over to bliss connubial, John G. Gage, aged "eighty-two years," and Anne G. Moffatt, aged "sixty-eight years."—Missouri Dem.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.—Mr. M. J. THOMAS our U. S. Marshal, has withdrawn from the Fond du Lac Union, with which he has been long and honorably identified, as Editor and Proprietor.—Mr. Augustus L. Smith has bought the interest of Mr. Thomas, and will henceforth be associated with Mr. W. H. Brooks, in the management and ownership of the Union.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE GOVERNOR.—Gov. Randall has made the following most excellent appointments;

Wm. H. Watson, of Milwaukee, Private Secretary.

Rufus Parks, of Waukesha, Superintendent of Public Property.

Horace Rublee, of Madison, Librarian, re-appointed.

Extraordinary Trial for Murder in France.

A trial for murder comes on this day (the 14th at Evreux, which is destined to take rank among the most celebrated of causes celebres. A lady of noble family, handsome fortune, and hitherto unblemished character, inhabiting the ancestral mansion of her late husband, her two sons, and an old faithful servant, are accused of the wilful murder of a neighbor, who was at one time on intimate terms with the family, but whose acquaintance, for reasons which do not clearly appear, it was lately desired to drop.—The circumstances, so far as they are at present known and can with propriety be related, are shortly as follows:

Mde. Jeufosse is the widow of M. de Lanlepoo de Jeufosse, a cavalry officer of some distinction, who returned from the service on the accession of Louis Philippe, in 1830, and from that period to the time of his death, about ten years since, resided on his estate, the Chateau de Jeufosse, a few miles from Evreux. M. de Jeufosse left a widow, two sons and one daughter, and a fortune of about £1,000 a year. Madame de Jeufosse, whose maiden name was De Beauvais, belonging to an old and much respected family of Vexin, is now forty-nine years of age. Her two sons, Ernest and Albert de Jeufosse, now respectively of the ages of twenty-five and twenty-two years, have since their education was finished, been in the habit of passing the greater part of the year in Paris, where they did business at the Bourse. They always, however, went to stay with their mother at the chateau during a part of the summer. The daughter, Madlle. Blanch de Joseph, is in her nineteenth year. Since the death of her husband, Mad. de Jeufousse lived a very retired life, and devoted herself to the education of her children. At the time of the tragical event to be presently mentioned there was a governess in the house, named Mdlle. Laurence Thouzery, a young lady about twenty years old. Crespel, the man servant, (forty-three years old) was born at Jeufosse, and had passed all his life in the service of the family.

The name of the individual whose violent death is the subject of the now pending inquiry was Emile Guillott, and this completes the dramatis personae. Guillott belonged to a rich tradesman's family of Gallon, a village not far from Juofosse. His father was a government contractor, and had left all his sons, of whom there were several, £1,000 a year apiece. M. Emile Guillot, who was thirty-two years of age, was married to a young wife, and had two children of tender years. He is described as having been a person of frank, pleasing manners. Although the Jeufosse family was, both in feeling and habit, altogether aristocratic, and seldom visited any but aristocratic families, it happened that about two years since a more than ordinary intimacy sprung up between them and the Guillots. This intimacy continued down to January in this year, when, for reasons which, as Madame de Jeufosse is alleged to have stated, concerned the honor of her family, she determined to break off the acquaintance. M. Guillot had brought scandal upon the governess, and then addressed himself with similar impropriety to the daughter. Madame Guillot at once resigned herself to this rupture, but M. Guillot could not or would not bring himself to believe that it was serious and final.—He thought Madame de Jeufosse had merely given way to a momentary caprice, and that there would be no difficulty in renewing the old friendship, which he appeared greatly to desire. He waylaid the family whenever they went out, and spoke to them gaily as if nothing had happened. Madame de Jeufosse was greatly annoyed at these attempts to make her revoke what, on her part, was a settled resolution. Many anecdotes of those forced interviews are current, which will no doubt, be elucidated at the trial. The Chateau de Jeufosse is a building of the time of Louis XIV or XV. The principal front is separated from the road by a court of honor and a high iron railing. At the back there is a lawn, sloping to a garden, beyond which there is a park surrounded by a low wall.

It is stated that M. Guillot had several times got over this wall at night, in order to deposit, in a certain hollow tree, a letter for some inmate of the Chateau de Jeufosse. However this may be, it is certain that on the 11th of June last, at about ten in the evening, he, accompanied by a servant named Gros, rode on horseback along a lane that bounded the park wall, and choosing a favorable spot, slipped off his horse upon the top of the wall and jumped down into the park.—Hardly had he done so when the report of a gun was heard, and M. Guilliot fell mortally wounded. He called out for help to Gros, but the latter, panic-stricken, ran as hard as he could to the chateau, where he knocked hard at the door, but could get nobody to answer. He then ran back to the spot where his master fell, and found him writhing in the dust in the agonies of death. M. Guillott charged him to convey his dying farewell to his wife and children, and to ask their pardon, and then breathed his last. Gros, however, was too frightened to go back to his mistress that night. He went to a friend of the family, a retired lawyer, named Tripet, living at Courmoulin, to whom he told his story, and it was not till the next day that the body of Guillot was removed from the spot in the park where he fell. It is stated in the indictment that the fatal shot was deliberately fired by Crespel, the old servant, by the orders of Madame de Jeufosse and her two sons, and that it being known that M. Guillot had been in the habit of getting over the park wall, Crespel had been lying in wait for him with his gun for several nights successively.

All Normandy—indeed all Paris and Belgian papers are crammed with it—find interest in the trial. The countess is arraigned for using words to her servant, the utterance of which involved Henry II. in the murder of Thomas A'Becket, "Have I no one to rid me of this scoundrel?" The latter was found under a tree, with eleven slugs in the os coccygis. Berryer defends.

A despatch received from Evreux states that after the reading of the indictment, it was agreed between the public prosecutor and M. Berryer that Mdlle de Jeufosse should not be examined as a witness. Crespel was interrogated by the presiding judge, M. Vannier, of the imperial court of Rouen. He admitted that, in pursuance of orders given him by Madame de Jeufosse and her sons, he had fired a gun to frighten Guillot, who had been in the habit of coming into the park at night, but he said that he never intended to kill him. He added that he had been told to charge his gun with small shot, and that having a double barrelled gun, he had by mistake fired the barrel that was loaded with grape shot. This line of defence was anticipated by the indictment which alleges, however, in reply to it, that both Madame de Jeufosse and her sons had repeatedly told Crespel that he had a right to kill anybody who got over the park wall in the night, and that both the procureur-imperial and the judge of instruction of Evreux had told them so. It is also observed in the indictment that the barrel which was not fired was found to be loaded with shot No. 4, which was quite heavy to kill a man. The despatch states that Mme. de Jeuffosse, on taking her seat at the bar, shed tears abundantly. Her two sons were very fashionably dressed. Madame Guillot, the widow of the murdered man, sat by the side of her advocate, M. Gresson, of the Rouen bar.—She was dressed in deep mourning, and kept her veil down.

A despatch from Evreux, dated the afternoon of the 10th, states that the evidence had taken such a turn that the ladies in court must have regretted having come there, and that it is still less possible, in a despatch, which must necessarily be laconic, to give an idea of what was said by the witnesses than it would be in a regular report. Another despatch says that the pleadings will probably commence on the 18th, and that it will be scarcely possible that the case can be finished before the night of the 19th.

The last steamer brings the news that this trial terminated in the acquittal of all three prisoners, and that public opinion justified the verdict.

INHUMAN TREATMENT OF A GIRL.—The Lockport Courier tells, on the authority of a justice before whom the facts came out, that a girl ten years of age who had been abandoned by her mother and sisters, was taken from the Niagara County poor house by one Jesse A. Olmstead and inhumanly treated. Olmstead was in the habit of outraging her by pulling her ears nearly off, kicking and pinching her until she became black and blue from head to foot. He tied her hands behind her, and fastened her to the fence, very late at night, then put a white sheet over himself and frightened her almost to death. He would take her to the barn at nine or ten o'clock in the evening with a spelling book, as he said, to learn her to spell; but, as the girl says, after fastening the doors of the barn he outraged her person; which statement is fully corroborated by her appearance, and the testimony of Drs. Butler and Leonard of Lockport.

SPECIE IN THE NEW YORK BANKS.—The New York Times says that the amount of coin held by the New York banks, nearly reaches twenty-nine millions of dollars, or an excess of about eighteen millions over the specie strength with which the banks in New York city entered upon the year 1857. The Sub Treasury of that city, on the other hand, shows a decrease of $8,171,000.

The Almanach de Gotha, of 1848, contains the names of 47 emperors, kings, princes, grand dukes and dukes reigning in Europe, as well as the Emperor of Brazils. The oldest of the sovereigns is the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg Strelitz, who was born on the 12th of August, 1779; and next to him the King of Wurtemberg, born on the 27th of September, 1784. The prince who has had the longest reign is the Prince of Schaumbourg Lippe, the date of his accession, when quite a child, being the 15th of February, 1788. The youngest princes are the King of Portugal, born the 16th of September, 1837, and the Duke of Parma, (represented by his mother as regent,) on the 9th of July, 1840.

A Narrow Escape from Death.

From the St. Paul Minnesotaian.

THRILLING ADVENTURE OF A MAN LOST IN THE SWAMPS.—Many of our readers are acquainted with Fred Walters, formerly a Porter in the store of B. Presley, Esq., on the Levee. It seems that some weeks since he went up to the neighborhood of Princeton, on Rum River, about ninety miles above St. Anthony, on a hunting expedition. He boarded in the meantime at the house of a Mr. Hopper (who is our informant) about three miles from Princeton. About the sixth of December, he started out in the morning, promising Mrs. H. to return about 3 o'clock. He did not come back that night, and it was supposed he had tarried at the house of another German, over the river. As he did not return the next night, nor the next, fears for his safety were aroused, and about half a dozen men of the neighborhood, well acquainted with the country, started in his tracks in search of him. The search was kept up until the snow fell, on Thanksgiving day, covering his tracts, and rendering the pursuit unavailing.

From Walters' own account, he wandered, after getting lost, over a great extent of country, perfectly bewildered. He found no game, and no signs of life. His strength gradually failed, and a terrible death stared him in the face. His faithful dog still kept with him, but he threw away his heavy rifle, too fatigued to carry it.—For four nights and five days he wandered thus, with "nothing to eat, no fire, no place to sleep, and saw no sign of a human being" he says, all that fearful period. At last his strength failed, and he sullenly set down, resolved to die, as he knew he could never make his way out of the interminable labyrinth of swamps. His dog had even to be coaxed to follow him; it too, was worn down by hunger and fatigue. Calling it to him in this last desperate extremity, he plunged his knife into its breast, and tearing out its liver devoured a part of it raw and bleeding. Even famished as he was, this unnatural mess sickened him, and he threw it away. The last hope that nerved him vanished, and his courage forsook him.

Unable to go farther, he lay down under some bushes, and made a sort of shelter by pieces of bark, &c., resolved to calmly await the death he knew must soon relieve him. What feelings must his have been!—lying down to await a slow and terrible fate, no eye to witness his last moments, far from home, in a wilderness, where no rites of sepulture, even—would await his body!

But hark—the sound of a human voice thrills through him,—no, he is not deceived—it is! he eagerly springs to his feet, as well as his frozen limbs permit him, and hail the party. His halloo is answered, and in a moment more, he is surrounded by friends.

This, was the hour of his deliverance, and by a miracle. A party of three gentlemen from St. Anthony, were looking for Pine claims, and by a mere chance strayed in that direction. But a difficulty still lay in the way. Walters could not walk; and it was many miles to the settlement from which he had started. One immediately started off for help, and the others remained with Walters. A fire was built, a camp made, and some nutriment given him. He had now been lost four nights and five days, and before the person returned with a wagon, it was five days more! A road had to be cut through the greater part of the way, and the swamps were scarcely frozen up.

After being taken to Hopper's house, he remained 10 days in an exhausted state, ere it was supposed his injuries were so severe. His lower limbs then began to mortify, and it was apparent even to the uninformed settlers there, that the only way to save his life was to bring him to St. Anthony or St. Paul, and have them amputated. This tedious journey over rough roads lasted two days, during which time he had to be held like an infant, and had no rest.

The operation took place on Wednesday last at the County Infirmary at St. Anthony, by several Surgeons. So herculean, we are told, is the constitution of Walters, that after twenty days of almost unparalelled suffering, the Surgeons were compelled to give him an otherwise fatal dose of chloroform to keep him from struggling during the operation.

He is remaining there at the expense of Ramsey County, of which he is a citizen, and should be removed here. It is a case, too, for the sympathies of our citizens, if, as we are told, Mr. W. is really needy.

Hard Times and Hard Drinking.

A Glasgow Journal argues that a reform in the drinking habits of society would have saved England from the panic. It is a branch of the subject overlooked on this side the Atlantic pretty generally. Hear him:

> The present want of Britain and America is capital. Credit has exceeded capital, and a collapse has taken place, and, in such circumstances, will always take place.
> Now the capital of the British banks is principally composed of the savings of the middle classes. The Western Bank, which has just failed, has in it deposits of sums under fifty pounds, amounting to half a million. Paradoxical as it may seem, the deposit in banks of the comparatively small savings of multitudes must constitute the trading capitel of the nation, by the increase of which, trade will be promoted, and, by its diminution, impeded. The capital of the aristocracy, as a class, is constantly diminishing. As the spokes of a wheel, so soon as they have got up, come down, this class when it has risen to greatness, begins to decline. From them, bankers can expect little towards their deposits. Their accounts are very generally overdrawn.—Men in trade use their surplus capital for the enlargement of their business. The number of their ships require to be increased, their mills to be enlarged, or mines improved.
> The savings of the rich are not left in banks to become a trading capital for the nation. They can employ their money so as to secure a much larger return than banks can afford.
> On handicraftsmen, clerks, tradesmen, small shopkeepers, and professional men, the banks must principally depend for deposits. The power o' working men to increase by their savings the capital of a bank from their numbers, and sometimes from the greater ease with which, in their case, ends can be made to meet, is greater than that of all other classes that we have named, put together. All the capital saved yearly by the rich is less than that expended by the poor on strong drink. Were half the money expended on strong drink laid up in the bank to meet the necessary exigencies of working men, sickness, want of employment, or age or to provide education for children, support them during the first years of their apprenticeship, or, send promising youths among them to college the capital of the country w'ld thereby be immensely increased.
> The mass of our working men who are spending fifty millions a year on strong drink, are not saving one million a year. The whole capital of the Bank of England, and all the Scotch banks, is less than the working men of Great Britain expend annually in the purchase of strong drink! How easy it would be for them to provide a trading capital for the nation by the deposits of their savings in the banks! One million of the people, with each a hundred pounds deposited in the bank, would create a trading capital for the nation of a hundred millions!" The sum consumed in a single year in strong drink, either in America or Britain, would have "tided" us over the difficulties that have produced the present money crisis, and largely prevented the existing stagnation of trade.

Necrological.

The N. Y. Herald publishes a lengthy necrological index for the year 1857. From it we take a few of the noted names. The United States lost William L. Marcy, one of its most distinguished statesmen; Mr. Dobbin, ex-Secretary of the Navy; Senators Butler, Bell, and Rusk; Honorables Preston S. Brooks, John Barney, Andrew Stevenson, Franklin Dexter, Louis McLane, H. L. Tourney; George Washington Parke Curtis; Commodores Newton, Parker, and Smoot. Doctors Kane and Scoresby, Arctic explorers; Gliddon and Leigh, eastern travelers; Lieut. Strain, explorer of the Darien Isthmus; Andersen, the Swedish traveler; Crawford and Rauch, the sculptors; West and Ranney, the painters; Brunshoff, the botanist, and Playfair, the architect, have all ceased to exist. England lost during the twelve months, John Britton, the antiquarian; Joseph Botherton, a most zealous popular reformer; the Earl of Ellesmere, an accomplished writer and liberal patron of art; the Earl of Harewood, a keen sportsman; Lord Fitzwilliam, an aristocratic corn law repealer; the Duchess of Gloucester, last surviving daughter of George the Third; Lord Amherst, a famous Envoy to China; Douglas Jerrold; Hugh Miller; Doctor Marshall Hall; Bishop Bloomfield; Admirals Rodgers, Rowley, O'Brien, Gosselin and D'Ros; Commodore Ethersey; Generals Anson, Wheeler, Lawrence, Barnard, Neil, Nicholson, Stalker, Jack, Sir James Macdonnell, Egerton, Balneavis and Hutchesson. France was horrified on the 3d of January by the assassination of the Archbishop of Paris, who fell by the hands of a priest. Many favorites of the great Napoleon were removed, including the Prince of Canino, Joseph Napoleon Ney, Prince of Moskawa, Vihocq, the famous thief catcher, and the last Adjutant General of the "Old Guard." General Cavaignac, one of the most disinterested of her modern patriots, died suddenly, and Beranger, Eugene Sue, De Musset, and the Duchess of Nemours, daughter-in-law of King Louis Phillippe, have also passed away. M. Demorest, an executioner in Paris during the "Reign of Terror, also died in 1857. Russia lost Prince Chernishoff, General Ewernicki, as well as the celebrated Princess of Lieven, the confidential correspondent of three Czars and three Empresses, and the most active female politician of that country. The Nizam of Deccan, and Goolab Singh, ruler of Cashmere, died in India, whilst four of the sons with a grandson, of the old King of Delhi were executed by the British troops in and around the city.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Deputy U. S. Marshal Geo. Williams, on his way to Oshkosh, last week, on official business, was exposed to a horrible death by drowning. He was crossing upon the ice, and when within five miles of that place the ice gave way, letting his horse into the water, and precipitating him from the sulky on to the back of the horse. The horse struggling and rendered unmanagable by the sudden change of circumstances made his position a decidedly perilous one—but employing such means as only a drowning man can, he succeeded in gaining the ice. Here he kept his horse above water for two hours before he attracted attention and assistance. A rope was brought and put around the horse's neck and he was choked until the usual consequences ensued to this seemingly cruel but necessary operation, and he was drawn out on the ice. Mr. Williams fortunately escaped with the loss of nothing but a buffalo robe and a whip.—Fond du Lac Union.

A Word about the Bill Posters.

PERHAPS some of the gentlemen who discharge the duties of Bill Posters, do not fully realize that their business is attended to in just no kind of way at . Perhaps their patrons are not aware of this, and when they find it out, perhaps they will keep on patronizing them.

We have had two or three instances mentioned to us recently, where the Bill Posters have left circulars and bills by the dozen at a single place, so as to get rid of them all, as soon as possible. At one place they were thrown into a store door by the pile. Business men who send bills about town, will do well to see that they get distributed half way about town. In many cases they do not.—Daily Wisconsin, Jan. 8.

JUNEAU BLOCK,

Is always on hand to execute orders in his line. Any of our business men employing him may rely on their orders being faithfully executed, as he does the work himself, and employs no boys to do it for him.

CONSUMPTION
DISEASES OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS

DR. W. HUNTER, late of St. Louis, has permanently located in this city for the special treatment of all diseases appertaining to the Lungs and air passages, Sore Throat, Chronic Enlargement of the Tonsils, Elongation and Enlargement of the Uvula, Acute and Chronic Laryngitis, Acute and Chronic Bronchitis, Catarrh of the Head, Clergyman's Sore Throat, and Consumption.—MEDICATED INHALATION, whereby the remedy is brought in direct contact with the diseased parts, besides all remedies known to the medical profession, will be used as symptoms require.

From the long experience he has had in auscultation and percussion, combined with success in treatment, he deems himself warranted in assuring the public of his professional skill in the treatment of these diseases.

Persons at a distance, sending a full description of their case, will receive treatment according to their symptoms. DR. W. HUNTER,

REDUCTION IN THE PRICE OF THE
BADGER STATE SAFES!

NOT TO BE SURPASSED in any respect by any safe manufactory in the whole country, we have just completed our arrangements for manufacturing the

BADGER STATE SAFES,

Upon a larger scale than we have ever done heretofore by the introduction of new machinery, and by increasing our manufacturing facilities.

FIRE & BURGLAR PROOF!

Our SAFES, as is well known, are more substantially constructed, and more handsomely finished than any other safe manufactured in America, and consequently it has cost us more in getting up our safes than any other manufacturing establishment in the country. But, notwithstanding this, we are now enabled to offer our safes to the public at

AS LOW PRICES!

As any other safes manufactured. The following are the former and present prices of some of our safes:—
No. 1 Badger Safe, present price, $135, former $150.
" 1½ " " " " 160, " 185
" 2 " " " " 200, " 225
" 3 " " " " 275, " 300
and so on.

The severe tests which the Badger State Safe has stood, both in this city and elsewhere, establishes its proof against fire and water for the protection of valuables.

No. 12 Kneeland's Block.

GIFFORD'S SUBDIVISION.

I am authorized by Mr. Robert Lavis to subdivide Block 205, in Gifford's Subdivision, into thirty four Lots.

This is by far the most valuable part of the Gifford Tract. It is nearest the city, is exactly to grade, requires neither cutting, filling or levelling in any part of it.—Fronts on Spring street Avenue and Sycamore street, is only twenty minutes walk from Spring Street Bridge, and has a good side-walk the whole distance.

Better, Cheaper or More Desirable Lots Cannot be purchased.

Terms are ten per cent. down; balance, three per cent a month, without interest.

Plats of the above property may be seen at my office and a conveyance will always be ready for the accommodation of purchasers.

An Agent will be found on the premises.

CITY LOTS, LOTS, LOTS, LOTS, LOTS, PALMER & CO'S Addition, No. 21. One mile and a half from the Spring Street Bridge.	We have laid off the balance of our original purchase on Spring street into lots, and now offer them on the same terms as heretofore, viz: On each hundred dollars of purchase money ten dollars in advance, and three dollars per month thereafter until paid WITHOUT INTEREST. The lots are beautifully situated on high ground in a healthful locality, and embraces some of the finest views about the city. They will bear examination.

The very low price at which they will be sold, together with the terms, commend them to the attention of all classes who desire a home and exemption from rents.—Young men, mechanics and laboring men, and tradesmen of small means have here an opportunity to invest that is within their reach. We have an agent on the property every day, after 3 P. M., to show the lots.

Hints to Girls.

The following good one was written by Frances D. Gage. We commend it "to all whom it may concern."

Did you ever see a lady
Look into a stranger's face,
In an omnibus or a rail car,
As if saying, "Sir, your place?"

Did you ever see a lady
Walk up to a church pew door,
Lace and ribbons all demanding
"Yield your pew," and nothing more

Did you ever see a lassie
Flirt into an old man's chair,
And impelling age or honor,
Let him stand—no matter where?

Never see the stage coach emptied
For some fidget in her pride,
And the weary men of business,
Tumbled out to ride outside?

Never go to hear a lecture,
When some fashionable "dear"
Would come in and make a bustle
Where you most desire to hear?—

Routing half the congregation,
And disturbing all the rest,
As if she was all creation,
Being "fashionably dressed?"

Now, girls, if you're so thankless,
So exacting and so free,
Time will come when gents will answer,
"Miss, this seat belongs to me."

Never, girls, disturb a lecture;
Church or hall, where'er you go,
Still respect the rights of others—
This is "women's rights" you know.

THE QUEEN'S CHILDREN.—The Queen's children are rapidly growing up. The following paragraphs, all of which we cut from the London Daily News of the 12th, relate to the movements of four separate members of the young family. The Princess Royal, who is about to be married, is now aged 17; The Prince of Wales, who is going to plant trees at Dartmoor, is 16; The Princess Alice, whose hand is to be demanded in marriage by the Prince of Orange, is 14; and the Prince Alfred, whose "residence at Averbank" his mamma graciously visited, is 13. Besides these four eldest, the family includes Helena (11,) Louisiana (9,) Arthur (7) and Leopold (4)

☞ At the recent term of the Circuit Court of Tazewell, Tenn., a fellow was arraigned for stealing a raw-hide. He alleged that he had purchased it from a negro. The attorney for the commonwealth admitted his statement, and he was acquitted, but was immediately indicted for trading with a negro. Thereupon the accused introduced two witnesses to prove that he had stolen the hide, when he was of course discharged; and having already been tried for stealing, he could not be tried a second time for the same offence, and was thus turned loose unpunished. A cotemporary pronounces this "the perfection of human wisdom!"

CALEB WALL'S ADV'TS

CITY AUCTION ROOM.

City Auction Room.

I GAVE NOTICE through our papers last week, that I had a large stock of Dry Goods from N. York, from Sixth Avenue, No. 320, corner of Twenty-first st. The goods are all from New York, and no other place; and as regards the goods, there are not many fancy ones; so much the better. They are plain, substantial goods, which we all want every day in our families. The goods are now all opened in the store on the west side of the river, formerly occupied by J. L. Pierce, where they will remain for thirty or sixty days. It is no intention of mine whatever to open a retail store, although I have as much right to do as I please, as any one else has to do as he pleases. I have heard that several of our merchants complain that I am injuring the trade by selling goods so low. I would kindly say to those merchants that the goods are all paid for, and if they will come and purchase them of me at a reduced price, I will give them credit, provided they can give me good paper, endorsed six and twelve months; or I will sell the entire stock once, which amounts to twenty thousand dollars, on the following terms: One-fourth cash in three months—balance in one, two or three years, with seven per cent. interest, secured by a mortgage on property in our city. But I shall continue to retail the goods until they are all sold, and I would say to all of our citizens to go and get great bargains. There is every kind of goods you want at thirty per cent less than ever sold in this city before. Mr. Ayres has the entire charge of the said goods. I attend to all auction business at the old corner, and will give it that strict attention I always have done. Any one having stocks of goods to sell, I am ready at all times to purchase the same. Call on me.

dec8 CALEB WALL, City Auctioneer.

City Auction Room.

I WANT to purchase twenty thousand to thirty thousand dollars worth of Dry Goods, in the following way: One quarter cash, balance in good city property; or I will pay all cash if I can agree on prices; or I will exchange good Bonds and Mortgages, or Rail road Stocks, or School Lands. Any one, who is tired of trade, and wishes to give up and retire to private life, call on me and I will buy you out. My object is to do good to all, and keep myself at the same time. Or, if any one wants to sell his stock of Goods at auction, I will advance him from one-fourth to one-third it is worth on said Goods. I will advance on all kinds of Goods, Furniture, &c., &c., but said Goods will be sold in ten days after the advance, or the parties can, if they wish, redeem by paying the Commission. All I want is to make money out of money, and keep the balance a rolling. I also want it understood that I am ready to do all auction business entrusted to my care. Oh, I would also say that the great stock of Goods which has been selling on the west side of the river, at half price, that I have concluded to keep the store open for thirty days longer. The crowd is so great and Goods so cheap that I think it my duty to give all a chance to get great bargains. Recollect it is in the store room formerly occupied by J. L. Pierce, on west side of the river. dec22 CALEB WALL.

City Auction Room.

ANOTHER STOCK OF GOODS arrived, all from New York. I have now, I think, the largest and most complete assortment of Dry Goods, ever at the corner store, where J. L. Pierce formerly kept, on the west side of the River. The said Goods are going off 30 per cent. less than cost. Great crowds every day.—Twenty two thousand dollars worth of Goods, everything you can think of. Ten clerks ready to wait on every person. A chance. CALEB WALL.

City Auction Room.

I HAVE, left in my care, a superior Family Horse, which can be recommended, and will be sold at a great bargain to some one. The owner of said horse is going to be abroad for six or eight months. This is the reason said horse is sold. It will be sold on six months time if desired. dec29 CALEB WALL.

THIS New and Direct Route now open to New York, Boston, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington City, Cleveland, Dunkirk, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and all Eastern Cities, Cincinnati, Columbus, Dayton, Springfield, Urbana, Zanesville, Steubenville, Newark and Wheeling, and all interior towns of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Virginia, Maryland, New Jersey, &c., making one grand unbroken Rail Road line between

CHICAGO AND THE EAST.

FARE AS LOW AS ANY OTHER ROUTE.

☞ Passengers wishing to go by this desirable and pleasant Route, should be particular and ask for Tickets by Fort Wayne, avoiding the annoyance of re-checking baggage as by other Routes.

Trains leave Depot on VAN BUREN ST., daily as follows:

6:00 A. M. 8.45 P. M.

With but one change of cars to Pittsburgh.

CHECKING BAGGAGE THROUGH

To Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Baltimore and New York. Connecting directly with trains on the great Pennsylvania Central Railroad, to all Eastern cities. Also, with Cleveland and Columbus Railroad to Cleveland, Dunkirk, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, via New York Central and New York and Erie Railroads to New York and Boston.

Persons going East will find this route by far the most desirable both from the advantage in point of distance, variety and beauty of the country through which the roads pass, as well as the less frequent changes of cars, and the annoyance of re-checking baggage required by other routes.

Facilities for the transportation of Freight and Live Stock by this route, are unsurpassed. Rates as low as any other route, and with equal dispatch.

FARM FOR SALE.

SITUATED one half hours ride from town, on a good plank Road. The farm contains eighty acres, sixty-five being improved. Of this, thirty-five acres is meadow land, and the balance sowed with grain. The whole farm is divided in lots of ten acres each, and well fenced. The farm house is new, having been built by the present owner to occupy himself. The property also contains two new and large barns, with outhouses complete. Also, a large orchard with a great variety of choice fruit.

The present owner, having changed business, is desirous to sell, and will offer the property low, and on good terms, or would exchange for city property.

For particulars enquire at the Lumber Office of H. Ludington & Co. West Water Street. my20-e811-dtf

PRINTERS' WAREHOUSE,
Corner of West Water & Spring Streets,
MILWAUKEE WISCONSIN.
Having completed our arrangements for the above business in this city, we would invite the co-operation of the printers of this and surrounding States in its behalf. Our facilities are equal to any Foundry in the country for manufacturing type and Printer's Material; and for beauty of finish and hardness of metal, cannot be surpassed in this or any other country. The faces of our Type, are all modern and most approved style, and we shall endeavor to compete with our Eastern brethren in getting up new styles of Type, Borders, Cuts, Ornaments, &c. We are in daily receipt of all new FACES as they are made at the East, and in advance of any other Establishment at the West.
Being agents for some of the best Type Foundries and Press and Ink Manufactories at the East, we shall keep constantly on hand a full assortment of every variety of material.
Presses, Wood Type, etc., furnished at Manufacturers prices.
Orders for Stereotyping, Engraving, etc. promptly attended to.
We shall issue in the course of the next three months a new Specimen Book which will be furnished on application.
Printers of Newspapers who choose to publish this advertisement including this note, 1 Month, will be allowed their bills at the time of purchasing, three times the amount of our manufacture.

Private and Confidential Medical Advice.
AT THE MILWAUKEE Venerian Hospital, established for the cure of Syphilis, Seminal Weakness, and the infirmities of youth and maturity, by Dr. Barnes.
Dr. BARNES takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Milwaukee and other places, that his office is at No. 12 Wisconsin Street.
READ AND REFLECT.—The afflicted would do well to reflect before trusting their health, happiness, and in many cases, their lives, in the hands of physicians ignorant of this class of maladies. It is certainly impossible for one man to understand all the ills the human family are subject to.
YEARS OF PRACTICE, exclusively devoted to the treatment and study of Syphilis, Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Strictures, effect of solitary habits, pleers upon the body, throat, nose or legs, pain in the head or bones, and all Mercurial Affections, and all impurities of the Blood, whereby the constitution has become enfeebled, enables the Doctor to offer relief to all who may place themselves under his care.
Dr. B. makes no charge for short consultations.—Those requiring much advice, should enclose a small fee sufficient to compensate for the time required to write the answer.

LESSONS IN Foreign Languages.
MR. AND MRS. L. S. B. DE ORETY, from Paris, for four years past instructors in foreign languages in Milwaukee, have the honor to inform the public that they will form classes in the French, Italian and Spanish Languages on the 1st of September next. The course of instruction will be according to the age and intelligence of the pupils, and the classes kept entirely separate, their house being arranged with that view.
Gentlemen and ladies who begin to speak either of these languages, can receive lessons in Reading and Conversation, Mr. De Orety furnishing books of the best French authors. Those too wishing to learn vocal music in either of those languages, will find a competent music teacher in the establishment.
The hours of instruction will be from 8 to 11 o'clock A. M., and from 2 to 5 P. M. And in the evening from half past 6 to 8, for conversation.
Mr. DE ORETY will also give lessons in French, Spanish and Italian, at his office, to gentlemen only, from 7 to 10 o'clock in the evening, as also lessons in Fencing, the use of the Sword, and all military exercises. Persons of delicate constitution and feeble temperament, as also those confined to their offices and engaged in sedentary pursuits, will derive from these exercises, improvement in their health, acquire strength in their limbs and find an agreeable recreation.
Mr. De Orety will also form similar classes for children, from 10 to 15 years old, at his house, or office, as parents may prefer. Fathers and mothers who desire to see their children strong, active and robust, can judge for themselves, after a few weeks trial, as to the effect of these different exercises upon their health.
The continued patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.
TO MERCHANTS.—Mr. DE ORETY will take charge of French correspondence to all the principal cities of France and will procure all Price Currents that they may want.

SANFORD'S LIVER INVIGORATOR!!

ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE and Liver Medicines now before the public, namely, DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR, or LIVER REMEDY, that acts as a Cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject the morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels, to carry off the matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the painful feelings experienced in the operations of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it, and when taken in moderate doses will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.
DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR is compounded entirely from new articles of medicine, viz: Gums. Some idea of the strength of these gums may be formed when it is known that one bottle of the Invigorator contains as much strength as one hundred doses of Calomel, without any of its deleterious effects.
Though possessing rare medicinal powers, these Gums have been but little known to physicians, and never used in their prescriptions until used in the form of the Invigorator, which met with such unprecedented success as to induce the proprietor to offer it as a family medicine tried and known in its effects. It has rarely ever failed to cure Liver Complaints in their worst forms.
INDIGESTION being caused by a deranged Liver is cured when the Liver is excited to action.
JAUNDICE is caused by the improper action of the Liver, and as a proof that the Invigorator relieves this disease, let any one troubled with Jaundice take the Invigorator regularly one week, and their skin will begin to assume its original color.
COSTIVENESS can be permanently cured by the Invigorator. Take it in small doses on retiring, and it assists nature in her operations. By gradually diminishing the dose, the bowels are left in a healthy and active state, and work as regularly as clock work.
SICK HEADACHE is very soon relieved by taking a double dose of the Invigorator, which corrects at acidity and sourness of the stomach,
For an overloaded stomach it has no equal, as it relieves all oppressive or uneasy feeling after eating heartily. For a family medicine generally, all who use it speak in the highest terms.
DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR came to us recommended to us a cure for Liver Complaints, and all diseases arising from a diseased Liver. The testimonials of so many of our Physicians in its favor, induced us to try it, and now conviction is certain that it is one of the greatest blessings ever given to Dyspeptics, for it made a complete cure before the first bottle was taken, and now we can eat anything edible without trouble, while before nothing but the lightest food would digest, and often that gave pain. Now what we want to say to all our readers is, if Liver Complaint or Dyspepsia trouble you, do not fail to try this the greatest remedy in the world.—State Fact.
We take infinite pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventative for FEVER and AGUE, CHILL FEVER, and all FEVERS of a BILIOUS TYPE. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.
There has never been tried in our family a remedy which has met with such unbounded success in the cure of diseases incident to children, as DR. SANFORD'S INVIGORATOR; nor is it alone for diseases of children that we use it; for it acts as a Cathartic so mildly and gently, and seems to renovate the system so thoroughly that we think we are doing a service to all in advising them, when they need medicine, to try this remedy. There are cases that have come under our notice where great benefit has been received in diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels, where all other remedies failed to give relief. It has become so useful in our family that we will not be without it.—Jacksonville, Ala. Republican.

THREE GREAT LIGH
Mankind have long been engulphed in darkne gards the true means of securing health—riddi man body from disease, and preserving life. under the fallacious treatment of the regular fac subject to a continued practice of probabilities and taintles. There is nothing certain or fixed in the of the sick either in the old or new school of med
Dr. Radway has succeeded in producing three —known to the world as Radway's Ready Relief, ting Resolvent and Regulator. These remedies only established facts, inasmuch as they have ne failed in their special or combined efficacy in pr fruitful and beneficial results—but, they are fa lishing a science—as the have in all cases, "wh succeeded in restoring to health—and ridding from disease after all other medical treatment h —and the most skilful physicians had given up as beyond the power of human means to cure—a nounced the dreadful mandate—incurable.
Radway's Remedies are therefore fixed facts in chives of medical science—they have been "often —"never denied"—and are ready "to be tried age
FIRST GREAT LIGHT.
RADWAY'S READY RELIEF.
As a Special Remedy to be used in all cases whe human body is seized with the torturing pangs or ysms of pain—no matter what the cause of the pa be, or where it may be located—an application Ready Relief, either internally as a drink, or ext as an alleviator, will, in a few minutes, restore the ed body to ease and comfort.
In all cases of Bowel Disorders, Dysentery, C Bloody Flux, Sick Headache, and other Nervous tions, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Sprains, Strains, Ache, Burns, Scalds, Wounds, Shot Wounds, Bruises Poisoning, either by the bites or stings of Reptiles, or Vegetable or Mineral Poisoning by acciden cases and under all circumstances where the hum tem is tortured by Pain, Radway's Ready Relie relied upon as a quick, safe and certain Remedy.
In cases of Billiousness, Billious Fever, Typhus Ship Fever, Yellow Fever, Fever Ague, Scarlet Fever, all malignant Fevers, Small Pox, Measles, Pne Radway's Ready Relief, used in connection way's Regulators, will cure the positively sick, with those disorders, and protect the system aga den attacks when either of these malignant dise vail.
SECOND GREAT LIGH
RADWAY'S REGULATORS.
The discovery of these wonderful pills establ era in purgation, and a new principle in the medicine. In taking these pills no griping pa ness at stomach is experienced—they operate leaving the bowels, liver and other organs in and a healthy condition.
They insure those who take them a good appe healthy digestion.
Each pill that is taken gives new life to the blood purify it, take from it all impure deposits, and its circulation.
One or two doses of Radway's Regulators will remove all distressing symptoms of Dyspepsia, Ja Nervousness, Indigestion, Costiveness, Liver Comp Billiousness, Melancholy, and will cure all orga eases, either in man or woman. Ladies troubled regularities, or weakening discharges, may rely prompt cure and Regular Periods, if Radway's are taken.
Every dose of Radway's Regulators that i stils new strength within the body of the wea and infirm. All who take are delighted with change they experience in a few hours. The and melancholy feel joyous and happy; the debilitated, strong and vigorous.
THIRD GREAT LIGH
RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT.
Cures Humors' Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Ulcers, Tumors, Fever Sores, Skin Eruptions, Blotc Bronchitis, Dyspepsia, Gaut, Dropsy, Syp Consumption, Appoplexy, &c., and all const al and chronic diseases, either inherited b ary transmission or inoculated by exposur erwise.
There is no remedy in the world that will miraculous cures in old diseases as Radways Reso It changes the whole human body—reproduces new and healthy blood.
Bleeding from the lungs—Radway's Renovating Resolvent will, in a few minutes, check Hemorrha from the lungs or throat. In cases where the pa coughs up clots of blood or pus streaked with Radway's Resolvent will soon remove the difficulty.
